We provide affordable training at your site or we can supply a professional training environment off-site. Your trainings can be customized to your company and even to the specifications of your customers. We provide excellent training to businesses that work in varietal settings that can including mining, power plants, light manufacturing, oil & gas, construction, and general industry. This presents specific problems when regulations may seem incompatible with one another. We can help.

CPR/First Aid is required by a number of OSHA and MSHA regulations* as well as secondary regulators. We would be glad to help you comply.
